Description

Hello andriy,

today i tried to upgrade to Redmine 2.0 using ruby 1.8.7, rails 3.2.3.
During migration i got rake aborted stating:
rake aborted!
uninitialized constant RAILS_DEFAULT_LOGGER

using trace i found that this constant is used at init.rb of author plugin.

After commenting out the line initialising the constant the migration was able to continue.
Could you please check it and ammend the code if confirmed?
Regards stef
