It's not clear, which custom fields of the date type to show on calendar... Ideally a new database field should be added, e.g., show_on_calendar, but this field should be active only for the Date type (so not sure if it's good). Or show all date custom fields?

I am happy for your response.

I think label of the date should be include together with date on the calendar. Because , It is telling means of date.

So, if possible, we prefer datetime instead of date.

Best regards,
